Insurance Q1 2027

New QRT templates, taxonomy 2.10.0

From the first-quarter 2027 reference date, insurers submit their quantitative templates in the format of taxonomy 2.10.0. The fourth-quarter and annual 2026 submissions remain in the old format. Some templates are removed, others created, and the annual submission deadline is extended.

IN DETAIL

What is changing.

What changes in submissions

	UP TO THE 2026 REFERENCE DATES	FROM THE FIRST QUARTER OF 2027
Taxonomy	2.8.2	2.10.0
Annual submission	14 weeks solo, 20 for groups	16 weeks solo, 22 for groups
Templates S.21, S.29, S.30	Submitted	Removed
Natural catastrophes	—	New templates
Activity codes	NACE 2	NACE 2.1 only

EIOPA published taxonomy 2.10.0 on 3 July 2026. It applies from the first-quarter 2027 reference period; version 2.8.2 remains in force up to and including the fourth-quarter and annual 2026 reference dates. The new reporting requirements apply from 30 January 2027, like the Solvency II review.

These changes are part of the European aim of reducing the reporting burden by at least 25%, and by 35% for small and medium-sized enterprises. EIOPA does not plan a general day-one submission, but a targeted data collection in 2027 from some undertakings. In France, the ACPR instructions of July 2026 set out the new submissions.

OUR VIEW

Fewer templates does not mean less work in the first year. Every template removed, amended or created requires data feeds, controls and the audit trail to be reviewed. And the first quarterly reference date of 2027 comes just after the 2026 annual closing, still in the old format: both chains coexist for several months.
